PAM/EPM on premises | CyberArk

1. Definitions

   In this section:

   (a) CyberArk means CyberArk Software (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. (Company Registration Number: 201505712Z);

   (b) Documentation means media and printed materials (whether in electronic or in tangible form) that are associated with the Product;

   (c) License Agreement means the Software License Agreement entered into by Cenitex and CyberArk, as amended by Cenitex and CyberArk in Amendment No. 1 (dated 10 May 2019); and

   (d) Product means the software components of the CyberArk client software or server software, or any gateways/Vault Connectors or add-on modules.

2. Grant of License

   The Customer acknowledges and agrees that CyberArk grants to the Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the Product and the Documentation solely for its own internal use on one personal computer or server owned, leased or otherwise controlled by the Customer internally in its organisation, or on such number of personal computers, servers and locations as otherwise agreed in writing between the Customer and Cenitex. In addition to the specified quantity of copies, the Customer may make one (1) additional copy as backup to the original.

3. Restrictions on Use

   The Customer agrees that it will not:

   (a) assign, rent, lease or otherwise transfer the rights granted to the Customer under the license described in clause 2 of this section; or

   (b) reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble the Product.
